[Industry Visit: Safari Construction Equipments Pvt. Ltd.] Narmada College of Management (NCM)

Date: 23/10/2023

Venue: Phase II, Bharuch GIDC

Our recent industry visit to Safari Construction and Equipment Pvt. Ltd. took place on 23/10/2023. The purpose of this visit was to gain first-hand insights into the operations, processes, and practices within the manufacturing industry.

The industry visit to Safari Construction Equipments was organized as an integral part of our educational program to give students the first-hand exposure to the construction equipment manufacturing sector.

Our visit commenced with a warm welcome from Mr. Kalpesh Parmar Sr. HR Executive, who provided a comprehensive overview of company, its history, mission, and its role in the construction equipment sector. We were given a guided tour of the manufacturing facility, providing us with a close-up view of the construction equipment manufacturing process, from raw materials to final assembly.

Safari Construction Equipments are a widely recognized brand of construction machinery and equipment. They have over 15 years of manufacturing expertise. They design and manufacture machines which are ergonomic, safe, and require minimal maintenance to achieve higher returns for the customers.

Their product range includes mini crane, site dumper, 10/7 concrete mixer machines, RM 800 reversible drum concrete mixer machine, bar bending & cutting machines, builder's hoist, rail trolley system, wheel barrow, vibrator screed, power trowel cum floater, vacuum pump, concrete groove cutter and other miscellaneous construction machinery & equipments.

Safari Construction Equipments Pvt. Ltd. is ISO 9001:2015 Certified Company with stringent quality control practices.

The industry visit was an enlightening and enriching experience that bridged the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical application. It provided a holistic perspective of the construction equipment manufacturing sector and instilled a sense of purpose in the students' career aspirations within this industry.

Our industry visit yielded several key takeaways, including:

- An in-depth understanding of the construction equipment manufacturing process.
- Exposure to innovative technologies shaping the industry.
- Awareness of the importance of safety and quality control in construction equipment manufacturing.
- Insights into potential career paths and roles in the sector.
- Inspiration to contribute to the construction equipment industry's growth and development.

The NCM is grateful to Safari Construction and Equipments Pvt. Ltd. for their warm reception and valuable insights.

[Lecture on Business Model Canvas by Shri Nitin Tailor] Narmada College of Management (NCM)

Date: 27/10/2023

Venue: Classroom No. 3, NCM

A session on the topic of Business Model Canvas which is widely recognized as a versatile strategic management tool used by businesses and entrepreneurs to conceptualize, design, and analyze their business models, was delivered by Shri Nitin Tailor, to the students of second year MBA as part of their course on Strategic Management.

Components of the Business Model Canvas:

1. Customer Segments: This component focuses on identifying and categorizing the different groups of customers or target markets that a business aims to serve. It is crucial to understand the diverse needs and preferences of these segments.
2. Value Proposition: This outlines the unique value or benefits that a company offers to its customers. It answers the question, "Why should customers choose your product or service over the other alternatives?"
3. Channels: Channels represent the various ways a company reaches its customers and delivers its value proposition. This can include distribution channels, sales channels, and communication channels.
4. Customer Relationships: This component defines the type of relationships a company establishes with its customers. It can range from personal assistance to self-service, depending on the nature of the business.
5. Revenue Streams: Revenue streams describe how a company generates income from its customers. This includes the pricing strategies, revenue models, and sources of revenue.

6. Key Resources: These are the critical assets, both tangible and intangible, required to deliver the value proposition and run the business efficiently. Key resources can include technology, human resources, and intellectual property.

7. Key Activities: Key activities refer to the core operations and processes that a company must perform to create and deliver its value proposition. These activities are essential for the business to function.

Teamwork is everything in the modern workplace. An effective communication, openness, trusting each other to do their part as well as clearly outlining roles and responsibilities is the key for the success of teamwork. A team's effectiveness relies heavily on a balance between clearly established goals and clear communication.

The theme for the next discussion is Faith and Trust.

"It is amazing what you can accomplish if you do not care who gets the credit."

- Harry S Truman

[Discussion Forum: Faith & Trust] Narmada College of Management (NCM)

Date: 14/10/2023

Venue: NCM, Meeting Room

Faith is taking the first step even when you don't see the whole staircase.

- Martin Luther King, Jr.

The discussion forum at NCM met again on 14th October 2023, Saturday with the subject Faith & Trust. The session began where Dr. Shah posed a question if Faith and Trust are same or different. All the participants opined that although the words faith and trust are used interchangeably, they are different. Faith is a noun while Trust is a verb and noun both. Faith comes from our belief system and is therefore permanent. Trust does not come from our belief system. Trust is built through our relationship with someone we build over a period of time and is therefore not permanent. The discussion proceeded with another question; is it possible to have faith in someone you don't trust or to have faith without trust? At this point Dr. Shah shared a wonderful story of Charles Blondin and Harry Colcord to illustrate what true faith is!

[Discussion Forum: Teamwork] Narmada College of Management (NCM)

Date: 07/10/2023

Venue: NCM, Meeting Room

"The strength of the team is each individual member. The strength of each member is the team."

- Phil Jackson

The Discussion Forum at NCM met on 7th October, 2023. The theme of discussion was Team work. Teamwork is the process of working collaboratively with a group of people to achieve a common goal. It is an essential aspect of any organization or project and is vital for success. When people work together, they can combine their unique skills and strengths to achieve a more significant outcome than they could individually.

Effective teamwork requires communication, cooperation, and trust. Members of a team must be willing to listen to each other's ideas, share their thoughts and opinions, and work together to find solutions to problems. Good teamwork also involves recognizing and respecting each other's differences, and being willing to compromise when required.

The discussion revolved around the following points:

- Necessity of a team, why is it required?
- The factors to be considered while forming a team
- The ground rules in a team
- How can one make a team efficient and effective?

Blondin was the foremost tightrope walker of his time. He gained worldwide fame in 1859 as the first person to cross Niagara Falls. Colcord was his friend and manager. Blondin walked 160 feet above the falls several times back and forth between Canada and the United States. Over several weeks, Blondin walked backward, blindfolded, back flipped, pushed a wheelbarrow, and even cooked an omelet during one of many trips across the rope.

At one such daredevil stunt Blondin stopped suddenly and asked the audience "Do you believe I can carry a person across in this wheelbarrow?" The crowd enthusiastically responded, "Yes! You are the greatest tightrope walker in the world. We believe!" "Okay," said Blondin, "Who wants to get into the wheelbarrow." As far as the Blondin story goes, no one did at that time! But in August of 1859, Charles Blondin's manager, Harry Colcord, did ride on Blondin's back across the falls.

This unique story illustrates a real life picture of what faith actually is. The crowd watched these daring feats. They said they believed. But, their actions proved they truly did not believe. Colcord had faith that he could accomplish these feats, but he also trusted his abilities to complete them. This is the difference between faith and trust. The spectators had faith in Blondin and believed in his abilities. But only Colcord trusted him enough to climb on his back and allow him to carry him across.

[Discussion Forum: Tit for Tat] Narmada College of Management (NCM)

Date: 21/10/2023

Venue: NCM, Meeting Room

"An eye for an eye makes the whole world blind!"

This quote by Mahatma Gandhi means that if we seek revenge by harming others, we will end up hurting ourselves as well. It implies that retaliation, revenge or resentment only lead to a never-ending cycle of suffering and misery.

Imagine being chastised by a friend, coworker or your boss for something you did that didn't meet their expectations. What would you do? Will you respond in a way that could lead to a heated argument or other conflict? Or would you simply accept the behavior to keep the relationship intact? Do you evaluate the desired effect of your reaction before acting on it? All of the options are practical, and many of us have used them in various circumstances. The key is to not allow your reactions to overshadow your responses.

Responding and reacting are not the same. Reactions are instant, reciprocal, or in opposition to a particular person or situation. Reaction could be positive or negative, depending on how you're feeling. Technically, responding is also a reaction; however the former considers the desired outcome of the interaction. A reaction may result in a positive or negative outcome whereas a response is engineered to produce a positive outcome. Reacting is emotional, responding is emotional intelligence.

This was a glimpse of Discussion Forum held on 21st October, 2023. The topic of discussion was "Tit for Tat".

"But inevitably, when I can't harm the people who harmed me, I just end up harming the people who love me."

[Discussion Forum: My Belief System] Narmada College of Management (NCM)

Date: 02/11/2023

Venue: NCM, Meeting Room

The Discussion Forum at NCM met again on 2nd November 2023. The members present in the forum were Dr. P H Shah, Dr. Trupti Almoula, Dr. Chetna Makwana, Dr. Subhash Yadav, Prof. Rashmi Ghamawala, Prof. Iram Khan, Prof. Rakhi Thakkar, Prof. Rakesh Panchal and Prof. Vaishali Sheth. The theme of discussion was 'My Belief System'.

The session began with a question what is your belief system? The members shared their opinion regarding their basic belief in God, belief in fate, luck and destiny, core values and value system, their faith in customs and rituals, etc. The following are the key takeaways from the discussion.

- Nothing is available for free in this world.
- There is no gain without efforts.
- There is no short cut to success.
- An individual can create his/her own destiny. One should not bother about the destiny. Life is more exciting as long as it is unpredictable.
- Service to mankind is Service to God.
- One should not search the meaning of life; instead one should make one's life meaningful. Purpose of life is to be happy and make life peaceful for others.
- Customs are traditional and are widely accepted knowingly or unknowingly; but one needs to understand that customs and rituals have been created with a scientific rationale. One should understand the rationale behind such customs and then follow them.
- Law of Attraction: positive thoughts bring positive results into a person's life, while negative thoughts bring negative outcomes. Thoughts are a form of energy and that positive energy attracts success in all areas of life. Therefore whatever you pay attention to will grow in life, and whatever you ignore will diminish from life.

- Values are guiding principles that we adopt in life. They serve as foundations for our belief system. Our judgments are based on our belief systems.
- A person should never compromise on his/her values.

[Discussion Forum: Responsibility] Narmada College of Management (NCM)

Date: 09/11/2023

Venue: NCM, Meeting Room

The Discussion Forum at NCM met on 9th November 2023. The members present were Dr. P H Shah, Dr. Trupti Almoula, Dr. Chetna Makwana, Dr. Subhash Yadav, Prof. Rashmi Ghamawala, Prof. Iram Khan, Prof. Rakhi Thakkar, Prof. Rakesh Panchal and Prof. Vaishali Sheth. The topic of discussion was 'Responsibility'.

The session began with a basic understanding of what is responsibility, followed with the categories of responsibilities. The members shared their opinions regarding the same. The following are the key points discussed.

- Responsibility is a duty or obligation that we are accountable for.
- Responsibility of an individual is towards one's self, family, friends, profession, society, nation and the world.
- Certain responsibilities are individual, while others could be joint responsibilities.
- With increased status, recognition and growth comes a greater responsibility.

- Usually people tend to avoid responsibility because they don't want to take ownership or take the blame of mistake or error.
- Lack of awareness and acceptance of responsibilities in an individual is a major challenge.
- Reasons to avoid responsibility: not to move out of comfort zone, fear of failure, incompetence, multiple tasks, tension/stress, priorities differ.
- We should rethink about our attitude and be ready and open to take responsibility.
- People tend to have a casual approach towards national responsibilities.
- Rights and duties are closely related and cannot be separated from one another.

- Effect of being impatient: increase in stress, it affects mental as well as physical wellbeing; spoils relationships and creates problems for others.
- Patience is a skill that can be developed by practice.
- Strategies for increasing patience are: being aware and watchful; distancing oneself from the source of annoyance; responding rather than reacting, meditation etc.
- The strategies may vary as per the situations which we encounter in our life.

[Discussion Forum: Patience] Narmada College of Management (NCM)

Date: 01/12/2023

Venue: NCM, Meeting Room

The Discussion Forum at NCM met on 1st December, 2023. The session was on the topic 'Patience'. The members present were Dr. P H Shah, Dr. Trupti Almoula, Dr. Chetna Makwana, Dr. Subhash Yadav, Prof. Iram Khan, Prof. Rakhi Thakkar, Prof. Rakesh Panchal and Prof. Vaishali Sheth.

The key takeaways from the session are as follows:

- Patience is the ability to stay calm; it is the capacity of an individual to tolerate anything irritating without being annoyed or frustrated.
- Nature teaches us to remain patient;
- All good things take time.
- With advancement of technology impatience has increased among people.

Situation	Examples	Strategy to be adopted
Interpersonal	Habits and behavior of someone in the family or friends and relatives or at workplace etc.	Train your mind to be tolerant. Ignore/neglect such behaviors.
Life hardships	Traffic, standing in a long queue, noise pollution, air pollution etc.	Accept the situation. When things are not in hand, one should be Patient.
Positive growth	Child's education, professional growth, organisational growth etc.	Give enough time. There's always an appropriate time for things to happen. All good things take time

- Another way to categorize these situations is as follows:

Situation	Strategy to be adopted
Situations that are not in our hand	Be patient

Situations where we can do something	Do the rightful action at the right time
Emergencies	Act fast without losing your calm

- The Uttarakhand Tunnel Rescue is a perfect example of patience; Patience keeps hope alive.
- Thus patience is an important virtue and we should develop it.

[Discussion Forum: Mindfulness] Narmada College of Management (NCM)

Date: 07/12/2023

Venue: Meeting room, NCM

The Discussion Forum at NCM met on 7th December, 2023. The session was on the subject 'Mindfulness'. The members present were Dr. Paresh Shah, Dr. Trupti Almoula, Dr. Chetna Makwana, Dr. Subhash Yadav, Prof. Rashmi Ghamawala, Prof. Iram Khan, Prof. Rakesh Panchal, Prof. Rakhi Thakkar, and Prof. Vaishali Sheth.

Following are the key takeaways from the session:

- Mindfulness is the ability to be attentive to the present moment. It is an important attribute for happiness and peace.
- Mindfulness is being aware of where you are and what you're doing; An individual is able to gain insight and awareness through observing one's own mind, and thereby increasing one's attention to others' well-being. The opposite of mindfulness is mindlessness.
- When one is mindful, it reduces stress, and enhances performance.
- There's an inverse relationship between social media usage and mindfulness.
- If you want to be happy; be in present. Rather than thinking about the past or worrying about the future, you should be present in the moment and try to just take in what is happening right in front of you.

- When you remain in the present your mind relaxes. A relaxed mind is a happy mind.
- Mindfulness and focus are different ideas. Being engrossed or focused is not mindfulness.
- When you try to focus, you try to use your mind by concentrating on a particular thought. On the other hand mindfulness is a state of no thought. It is becoming the witness, the observer of the mind.
- Mindfulness is non-judgmental awareness of the present moment.
- Mindfulness is natural. Every moment can be mindful. So one should keep practicing it!

[Session Taken by Dr. Vivek Vaghela from Heartfulness Institute for MBA 1st Year students] Narmada College of Management (NCM)

Date: 19–20 /12/2023

Venue: Classroom, NCM

Dr Vivek Vaghela from Heartfulness Institute addressed the students of MBA-I about Youth Unite. The “Youth Unite” movement endeavours to unite diverse youth communities, cultivating social connectedness and promoting collaborative growth and development. Serving as a steadfast pillar of support, the Youth Unite Community acts as a catalyst for igniting strong teamwork dynamics and an expansive networking space. This platform enables meaningful connections, idea exchange, and the exploration of diverse perspectives, thereby nurturing a culture of collective growth.

The purpose is to cultivate and nurture a community of 125,000 youth pioneers united by a shared objective to evolve into resilient individuals dedicated to the service of humanity. The program is part of the Heartfulness, which has grown as a global movement, with practitioners from diverse backgrounds and cultures.

Heartfulness is a form of Raja Yoga that focuses on the heart chakra as a center for meditation. The practice involves the transmission of spiritual energy, known as "pranahuti" or "transmission," from the guide to the practitioner.

[NSS Report: Amrit Kalash Yatra under Meri Maati Mera Desh Campaign] Narmada College of Science and Commerce (NCSC)

Date: 14/10/2023
Venue: NCSC, Bharuch

The National Service Scheme (NSS) at Narmada College of Science and Commerce organized a remarkable event, the "Amrit Kalash Yatra," as part of the "Meri Maati Mera Desh Campaign." This event aimed to foster a sense of unity, patriotism, and environmental consciousness among the students, as they collected the soil from their respective villages to create an 'Amrit Kalash.' The event was an outstanding success, and its credit goes to the vision of our esteemed Principal, Dr. A. K. Singh, who inspired the students to participate wholeheartedly. The event was skillfully organized by NSS officers, Prof. R.L. Gilatar and Prof. A.M. Patel.

He spoke about the program Lead through Inner Guidance using Heartfulness Techniques (L.I.G.H.T) The program aims to empower young individuals by fostering their holistic development. Through a range of resources, workshops, and mentorships, the program cultivates essential communication skills, emotional intelligence, and leadership proficiency. Its ultimate goal is to enable individuals to embody personal excellence and amplify their leadership capabilities.

Event Highlights:

Amrit Kalash Creation: The heart of the event was the creation of an "Amrit Kalash," a symbolic pot filled with soil from various villages of Bharuch District. This Kalash represented the unity of our diverse nation.

Regional Participation: NSS students from various regions of Bharuch District actively participated in the event. They brought soil from their villages, each with its own unique cultural and geographical significance.

Principal's Vision: Dr. A. K. Singh, our esteemed Principal, played a pivotal role in inspiring and motivating the students to participate in this noble endeavor. His guidance and enthusiasm set the tone for the entire event.

Environmental Awareness: Alongside the patriotic sentiment, the event also underscored the importance of environmental consciousness. By collecting soil from their villages, students were reminded of the significance of preserving and protecting our environment.

[Poem: Vaibhav Chauhan, T Y B. Sc. Chemistry] Narmada College of Science and Commerce (NCSC)

हम, यहां इसी लिए तो आए हैं,
सपने पूरे करने की चाहतों को लाए हैं,
उम्मीदें हमारी हमें सारी रात जगाए हैं,
यहां का माहौल हमारे सपनों को भाए है,
हम, इसी लिए तो यहां आए हैं।

माना की हम यहां पर अकेले हैं,
सारे दुखों को अपने दम पर हम झेले हैं,
मगर, साथ मां बाप का आशीर्वाद है,
करूंगा हर मेहनत, जब तक सलामत दोनों हाथ हैं,
डरने की क्या बात है, जब भोलेनाथ साथ है,
हम, यहां इसी लिए तो आए हैं, सपने पूरी करने की
चाहतों को लाए हैं।

माना, अभी टाइम है स्ट्रगल का,
लफड़ा नहीं चाहिए अपने को कोई कल का,
लोग कहते हैं, ये रहता है अकेला
कुछ न कर सकेगा, सारे दुखों का है ठेला।

बट, यू नो व्हाट आई बिलीव?
दुनिया है एक मेला, इस का ना रखो झमेला,
हम, यहाँ इसी लिए तो आए हैं,
सपने पूरी करने की चाहतों को लाए हैं।

आई नो, आई एम सो एलोन, मे बी आई एम द ओन्ली
वन वहऊ इस लिसनिंग टू माय सॉन्ग,

तू पूछता है, तेरा टाइम कब आएगा,
तेरे को बेटा में उस दिन बताएगा,

जब एक दिन आएगा,
तू भी मेरा गाना अपने फोन में बजाएगा,

हम, यहां इसी लिए तो आए हैं, सपने पूरी करने की
चाहतों को लाए हैं।

अभी तू जितना भी सुनाएगा ताने,
उस से ज्यादा लोग सुनेंगे मेरे गाने,

लोग होंगे वैभव के ही दीवाने,
तू अभी बेटा चाहे माने या ना माने,
हम, यहां इसी लिए तो आए हैं,
सपने पूरी करने की चाहतों को लाए हैं।

राम नाम को तरसे जिया, राम राम है कर्ण कर्ण में।
राम नाम को तड़पे जिया, राम राम है तन मन में।

जाने कितने दिनों से अरमा था,
राम झोंपड़ी से निकल के,
अपने भवन में आ गए है।
अब इस अरमान की सुनवाई हुई है।

अब खत्म हुआ इंतजार है।
केवल अयोध्या ही नहीं,
अब ब्रह्माण्ड भी झूम रहा है।

जग मगा उठा हैं यह संसार,
सियापति राम के आगमन से।
अब साल में दो दीपावली आएगी।
देखो प्राण प्रतिष्ठा के बाद क्या खूब चमक आई है
रामलला के मुख पर,
अब लगता है दुःख खत्म हो जाएंगे, पाप मिट जाएंगे
क्योंकि अब मेरे राम लौट आए है।
